

Gladstone Region Wellbeing Action Plan

opportunity, equity and quality of life for everyone in our community

Support of First Nations Youth in engagement with support services and opportunities

Self-identity, culture & community
We are connected to

Our parents have access to supports

Support of vulnerable families and children in engagement with support services

Our children have access to Quality Early Education Support

Promotion of child development and parenting supports

Our children start to life a healthy

Parent supports focused on ages 0-3 years made more available

Foundation Assumptions: Giving our children the best start in life includes growing up feeling loved and safe and this requires the health and wellbeing of our parents and families

Our parents have access to employment

Training and Employment Pathways identified and training opportunities designed

Our parents have access to supports

Our parents have healthy lifestyles

Integrated Service System

- Earlier interventions for increased wellbeing
- Collaborative Case Management for Complex Cases
- Capacity building for continuous improvement of the service sector
- Measurement and evaluation for continuous improvement
- Skills Attraction and Retention
- Optimise access to support service information

Our parents have parenting confidence

Our families have access to housing